Alberta and British Columbia comprise the two most western provinces of Canada.

The 4 mountain national parks Jasper, Banff, Yoho and Kootenay comprise a good deal of the Canadian Rockies.